

Foundation Swiss School for Guide Dogs for the Blind in Allschwil (Canton of Basel Landschaft) was first established in 1972 and is funded by donations, legacies and the Swiss disability insurance scheme. It is responsible for the breeding, rearing and training of guide dogs for blind people, assistance dogs, social support dogs and autism service dogs. The infrastructure is modern and the standard set by the training concept is high.

We are looking for a

Autism service dogs Instructor to start immediately, or on a date to be agreed on between us. If you are interested in working with people and animals, are open-minded, flexible and careful and have a hands-on attitude, why not take advantage of this opportunity and send us your application now?

Your functions

- Training autism dogs for children as well as introducing them into their family environment of their clients, providing them with follow-up care and arranging their retirement
- Assessment of new applicants
- Accompanying and instructing autism service dogs clients at follow ups

Your profile

- Ideally two or more years of experience in the service dogs sector
- A recognised qualification as an instructor of autism service dogs instructor ADI, advantageous
- Recognized training as an autism coach, advantageous
- In-depth knowledge of modern dog training methods (for example LIMA principle) and an open approach to new insights into the training of dogs
- Personality with high physical and mental resilience, flexibility, ability to work in a team and independence
- Excellent command of written and fluently speaking German; French would be advantageous
- Category B driving licence

We offer you an interesting field of work in beautiful natural surroundings; a responsible and fascinating challenge in a dedicated team; regular opportunities for further professional development. Naturally, we also offer appropriate remuneration and attractive social benefits.

Please note: It will not be possible to bring your own dog to work with you. As this job is advertised for an autism service dog instructor, you will be required to take the dog-in-training back home with you for several days per week.

You cannot travel directly to the school by public transport.

More information about our institution is available at www.blindenhundeschule.ch/en

Please send your completed application documents and any follow-up questions by email to: Bewerbung@blindenhundeschule.ch