Sponsorship Opportunities

Indiana Canine Assistant Network (ICAN) will be hosting the 2019 Assistance Dogs International Conference at the Embassy Suites in Indianapolis, Indiana. Assistance Dogs International (ADI) holds this spectacular event to offer new and innovative training ideas and the latest information in the assistance dog field to our member assistance dogs organizations from around the world. ADI is expecting approximately 250 participants from all over the world in attendance. We are planning a dynamic schedule of expert speakers to present during the conferences on topics ranging from breeding experts, innovative training techniques, current trends in management issues, and many more!
